DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 2 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ueyama (US 6651464).

Ueyama (US 6651464) teaches the invention as claimed including a selection actuator (1) in which a plurality of control magnetic poles ((15a, 15b, 25a, 25b) controlled with coils are disposed close to each other on the upstream side and downstream side and a knitting member of a knitting machine is selected by said control magnetic poles, wherein control means is provided for controlling independently said control magnetic poles on the upstream side and said control magnetic poles on the downstream side based on the position of the knitting member that is a selection object.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ueyama (US 6651464).

Ueyama (US 6651464) teaches the invention substantially as claimed as indicated above in the rejection to claim 1. However, it does not set forth the specific width of 80% or more of an arrangement pitch of the knitting members in the knitting machine. It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to provide a width of 80% or more of an arrangement pitch of the knitting members in the knitting machine since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3-6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
